

7 January 2009 – Business Transitions with KM & Coaching

For: Indian & Israeli KM markets

Hosts: Siva Sai Kolluru, Chief Consultant, AskOnline Technologies, India; Gloria G. Kinrot, Senior Coach & Consultant, U-Solve Israel

Audience: Knowledge Managers & Heads in any industry

About Webinar: Siva & Gloria host a 1-hour international discussion that takes a critical look at Knowledge Management in Organizations for success and sustenance. To learn from the perspectives of teams, expert communities and key business leaders and knowledge managers. Qualifying the link between KM and Coaching. With case studies from the international market as they apply to knowledge management programs.

Topics include: Shortening the learning curve of your organization to capture and transfer tacit & explicit knowledge of individuals and teams, Improving the success rate for KM project implementation using Coaching (for users), Outsourcing KM-assessments, strategy development, technology and related Coaching activities and the qualities your outsource partner must have to guide you through KM implementation, Blending services to bring top-down and bottom-up methodologies to your business - a powerful, state-of-the-art approach created by the common service offering of AskOnline & U-Solve More >>>

Benefits: Understand new innovations in coaching as applied to knowledge management & change programs. Attendees get feedback from colleagues & experts. FREE 1-hr follow-up consulting & coaching session to apply knowledge to organization.

WEBINARS - KM COACHING FOR BUSINESS TRANSITIONS

Written by Administrator

Thursday, 29 April 2010 15:46 - Last Updated Thursday, 06 May 2010 18:25
